Blockbuster Knights

In the early days of movies, the term "blockbuster" represented a hit movie. When a hit film was released, people would line up around the block to get into the theatre. "Blockbuster Knights" was chosen as a theme because Marian High School has become well known for academics, athletics, and the many other opportunities it offers. As the population at Marian continues to increase, so do the numerous achievements of the students. Just as blockbuster movies are remembered for a life time, so are the memories made in the four years spent at Marian.

Crazy Beautiful

This year's homecoming went extremely well. Many students participated in the themed dress-up days, and the lower floor competed against the upper floor for the best decorated. The Freshman and Senior classes dominated with their Southern climate theme. The football victory over Gary Mann on Friday ended homecoming with the crowning of Josh Higginbotham and Andrea Dibley as King and Queen.

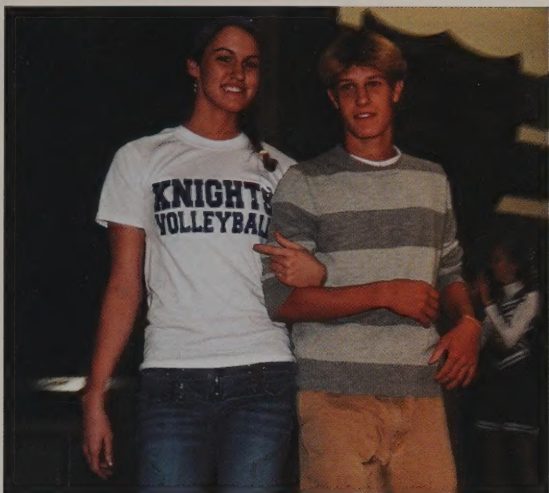

Congratulations

Queen:
Josh Higginbotham and
Andrea Dibley

Forty Days and Forty Nights

Marian allows its students many opportunities to grow in their faith. Father Dan Scheidt brought new life and enthusiasm to mass. Outside of mass, students can develop through retreats which enhance our understanding of the Holy Spirit's influence on our lives. Bishop D'Arcy made his annual visit. He said mass, visited classes, and talked with many students about what we would like to see improve at our school. Marian's Catholic identity is a big part of the success of the school and its students.

Dirty Dancing

This year's Semi-Formal went off without a hitch. The theme this year was "A Magic Carpet Ride," and once the dance started, the magic was everywhere. Thanks are due largely to the girls' tennis team who did a wonderful job setting up the Century Center for all the students who took part in the dance. The dance was a welcome winter fantasy, and everyone seemed to enjoy the 2003 Semi-Formal.

Scream

Marian spirit has been seen at all levels this year and also from a range of students. This year's Marian spirit was seen at pep rallies, football games, basketball games, and all the other variety of sports that take place at Marian. One thing is for sure - all of the students love to show off their Marian pride.

Beyond the Stars

The annual Marian/St. Joe auction was held in St. Joseph's gymnasium. The theme was "Beyond the Stars." Marian students volunteered their time to help park cars, serve dinner, and help with the oral auction. Parents put in numerous hours of work making decorations, searching for items to be auctioned, and making sure the night went off without a problem. Overall, this year's auction, the biggest fundraiser for Marian, was very successful.

Joy Ride

This year's spirit week was full of new things. The Spirit Court and the King and Queen were announced at the girls' basketball game against New Prairie. Also, the themed days were definitely new and interesting. New days were introduced that have never been used before such as Multicultural Day and Favorite Band or Singer Day.

You Can't Take it with You

This year the Marian Drama Department had a new director, Mr. Troy Dobosiewicz. The production for this year was You Can't Take it with You. A story with a comedic twist, the play portrayed the life of an eccentric New York family after the Great Depression. Congratulations to the cast and crew on an awesome hilarious performance!

Do Black Patent Leather Shoes Really Reflect Up?

This year's Spring Musical was a huge success. This religious comedy about the struggles of Catholic childhood presented situations many students can relate to. Although this was Mr. Dobosiewicz's first year of directing at Marian, it was obvious he could put on a great show. The cast and crew were awesome - a standing ovation for everyone involved!

Save the Last Dance

The newly restored Palais Royale Ballroom was the elegant setting for the 2003 Prom. With palm trees swaying by a tranquil sea, the tropical theme of "Caribbean Nights" was evident in the delicious dinner of chicken piccata and in the joyous island sounds of the limbo dance. The glittering surroundings complemented the sparkling dresses and sleek formal wear on display. All in all, the dinner and dance proved to be a gala and memorable occasion.

Rush Hour

The week before finals is dedicated to the seniors. It all starts with the Senior Class Trip which this year was to Six Flags. The trip was a great middle to the four day weekend, the fourth day being Senior Skip Day. Next came the Senior Service Day in which the senior class split up and went to several local parishes and helped with many odd jobs including painting, gardening, or even digging out bushes. Senior Appreciation day followed. Father Dan said a special Mass in the Cafeteria and told the story of how he discovered his vocation of being a priest. Then the parents made a wonderful breakfast, and the students got a chance to watch their class video which was excellent. The day ended with practice for the graduation to insure the ceremony went on without a hitch. This week, like so many spent at Marian, went by in a flash making the title "Rush Hour" fit perfectly.

A Walk to Remember

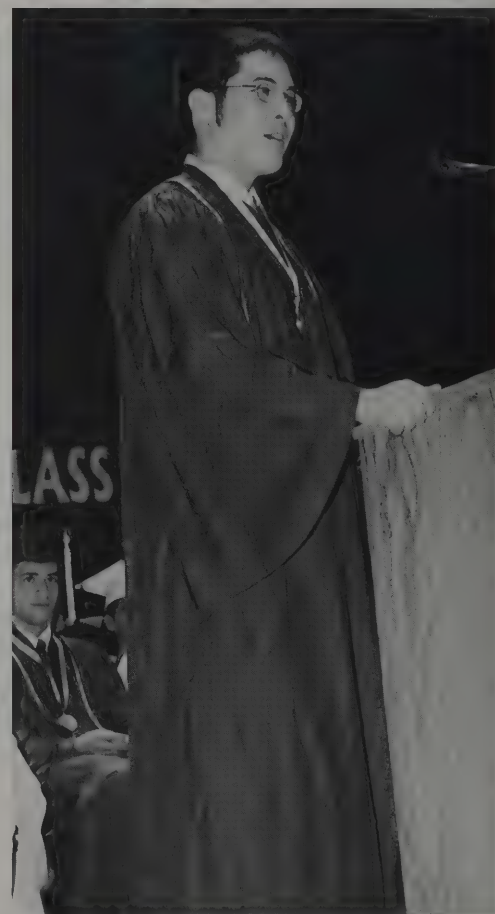

While parents were searching for the perfect seat in the Morris Performing Arts Center, 152 seniors stood in the basement waiting to make the passage from high school seniors to adults either continuing their education in college or starting new career opportunities. Once on the main floor, the seniors made their "Walk to Remember" up the aisles, searching for their family and friends, and onto the stage. Valedictorian Ann Verwilt and Salutatorian Ryan Bartkus gave excellent speeches. Mr. Dvorak, the main speaker, gave the seniors tips for success. As the ceremony ended, Father Dan Scheidt sang the "Regina Caeli" one last time. Afterward, everyone gathered outside to take pictures and say farewell to those whom they met over the past four years.

Deep Impact

Marian has always been known for the dedication of the students to the community. This year, students came together to Stuff the Truck, an annual event to help St. Vincent de Paul provide the less fortunate with toys, clothing, and non-perishable food items. Before Christmas, the Marian Hockey team joined with the Marines to collect Toys for Tots, and the Student Government collected food to help make Christmas special for local families. Throughout Lent, Marian again joined together to help fulfill the promise of Eric Henry. Last year before Eric passed away, he made a promise to give away those items he no longer needed. It was amazing to see the amount of donations brought in to continue Eric's Promise.

Men of Honor

National Honor Society completed another successful year this year, adhering to the qualities of service, leadership, and scholarship. The members of NHS once again were the leaders of the school academically, helping to tutor those students who needed help. Members also visited the Sisters of St. Francis and held a Christmas party for them. NHS provided services to the surrounding areas and helped students bring their grades up.

Inspector Gadget

Placing third at the Regional competition, the Science Olympiad team barely missed a trip to State and earned twelve prizes. Senior medal winners were Shaun Wilson, Michael Minelli, Tony Cunningham, and Michael Violi.

Marian students made a fantastic showing with their research efforts this year. The list of award recipients was too long to include. Our top science winner was Ashley Cenicerros who received 1st place in the Northern Indiana Regional Science and Engineering Fair and earned the opportunity to compete in the International Science Fair. Congratulations to all participants!

The Art Club could not find enough hours in each day for all the activities in which they were involved. They sponsored the Halloween Pumpkin Art Contest and the Christmas party for residents of the Center for the Homeless. Many members contributed long hours to creating unique furniture and other works of art for the auction. A highlight of the year was the field trip to the Art Institute of Chicago. The Fine Arts Festival featuring every artistic medium was the culmination of a rich and productive year for the Art Club, sponsored by Mrs. Gunty.

THE WAR ON TERRORISM

Over the course of the year, the world's attention focused on a chain of tumultuous terrorist events. In Afghanistan, the Taliban regime fell from power as U.S. troops crippled the al-Qaeda network and cleared caves in search of Osama bin Laden. World-wide, civilians and military personnel fell victim to terrorist bombs and acts of hatred. On the home front, "bioterrorism" became a common term after it was revealed that Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein was producing biological weapons. Hussein's defiance of United Nation's imposed sanctions prompted the United States to seek world support of military action against Iraq. Members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization wrestled over conflicting opinions on the issue, while North Korean leader Kim Jong Il threatened to deploy nuclear weapons if Iraq was attacked. As tensions rose among political leaders, the world watched and waited to see what the next chapter in "The War on Terrorism" would bring.

Where the Heart is

The Marian Chapter of Junior Civitans had a busy year. The club performed many positive actions for the community. They sponsored the Christmas bells in which students bought gifts for people who are in nursing homes or other forms of medical care. Also during Christmas, members rang bells for the Salvation Army. With the help of sponsor Mrs. Schwab, Habitat for Humanity was also a huge success here at Marian with civitans volunteering many hours to build homes in the community. The highlight of the year was the Senior Prom when Marian Students joined with elders from local nursing homes at the Knights of Columbus hall for an evening of dancing and refreshments.

Model Behavior

The SADD Group tried to live up to its title---Students Against Destructive Decisions---by its involvement in charitable and service activities at Marian. One of their most important responsibilities was sponsoring the After Prom to make the evening memorable and safe for all prom goers. Casino games, bowling, door prizes, and refreshments were provided by SADD and the Marian Parents' Club for the enjoyment of all. SADD was sponsored by Mrs. Robinson.

The Ladybugs

The 2002 Marian Girl's Soccer Team had a challenging task this year to fill many vacant positions lost to graduation. One of the first tasks was to learn to play with those new players as a fluid group. The team also had one of the most challenging early season schedules. After a rocky start, the girls, under the leadership of seniors Cecily Brasseur and Malia Probst, consistently worked hard and found their stride as the season progressed. Coach Hosinski commented, "Overall, the team showed the intensity and the competitive spirit that is only exemplified by champions."

Forest Gump

The Boys' Cross Country team finished sixth at sectionals just missing advancing to regionals for the second year. Leading the way for the boys were seniors Brent Forgues and Gabe Masterson. Juniors Chris Gilman and Mike Simon along with sophomores Caleb Laux and Tyler Rigney also helped in the success of the team. The team was small but competed with the elite. Next year the team should be powerful with the return of experienced and talented runners.

Gone with the Wind

The Girls' Cross Country Team qualified for regionals for the second straight year. Leading the knights were seniors Kelly Fransted and Melissa Delahanty, junior Kallie Schroeder, and sophomores Leah Lattanner and Becky Holland. Kelly Fransted set a new school record with her time of 15:47. The girls had a great season, finishing fourth at sectionals and seventh at regionals. They also finished third in the NIC. Although Kelly and Melissa will be missed, the future looks bright for the winning tradition in Cross Country to continue.

Empire "Spikes" Back

What started out as a rebuilding year for the volleyball team turned out to be an exciting season. With wins over St. Joe and New Prairie, they beat all the odds and expected to go far. But even with a controversial "loss" to Mishawaka at the end of the year, the Knights' hopes were still high to win the Sectional on their home court. A heart wrenching loss to New Prairie in the finals ended the season with a hard blow. Though disappointed, the girls look forward to next year. With the loss of only one senior, Brigitte Szocs, another outstanding season is to be expected.

Varsity Blues

This year the Knights overcame much adversity. Seniors Brendan Krueger, David Countee, Ryan Creachbaum, Nick Kaczynski, Mike Violi, Nick Hammer, Nathan Hayes, JR Marchbank, Stephen Seidl, Zach Brettnacher, Shawn Way, Tony Cunningham, and Scott Wasulko never gave up. Their leadership helped the many young players mature and develop throughout the year, and the team was able to put together some exciting wins at the end of the season. Congratulations to Nick Kaczynski who set a new school record for the longest punt - 62 yards!

Bring It On

With precision routines, athletic stunts, and boundless energy, the Marian cheerleaders added their special zest to many school activities. The girls cheered at the football and basketball games, and enlivened the pep assemblies with their infectious spirit. Creating a tropical theme, they also took charge of the Senior Winter Sports Night. Their hard work paid off in benefits to the entire student body, and they had fun at the same time.

With the loss of many senior stars, it was a rebuilding year for the Knights' basketball team. This year, seniors Micah Lattanner, Adam Bradley, and Ryan Creachbaum led the team with the help of junior Jason Smigielski. The boys had a huge victory with a win over St. Joe. Boys' Swimming

The Boys' Swimming and Diving team competed for the first time since its 1979 season. All team members improved greatly as the season progressed. The 13 individuals who completed the whole season did a great job. They competed against themselves, their teammates and their opponents with class and dignity. The team was led by junior diver and regional qualifier Alex Ashbaugh and by freshmen Sam Brasseur and Alex Bozymowski. Congratulations to NIC All-Conference Honorable Mention winner Sam Brasseur! Center Stage

The purple tide has gone blue once again. The Marian Poms have taken city away from Clay for the third year in a row!! These girls have made the school and community expect great things from them, and they always come through!! With the loss of seniors Carly Reust, Ann Verwilst, Katie Gardini, Kim Bishop, Johanna Celie, and Angie Leblang, the rest of the squad will have to pick it up but there is no doubt that they will triumph again.

Great Expectations

The Marian Girls' Tennis Team this year had an amazing season filled with fun and food. Often seen as the team with the most food, the team held together with strength through various injuries and illnesses. The final record ended up being 11-6 with Carolyn Pyszka and Martha Strebinger advancing individually in the sectional tournament. The Knights' JV tennis team completed an undefeated regular season as well as capturing first place in the Concord JV Tournament. With the loss of only two seniors, the team will only improve in the coming seasons.

Thin Red Line

The boys' varsity tennis team had a tremendous season with only two main season losses, while the junior varsity team had an equally spectacular season with only four losses. Seniors Matt Garrett and Patrick Gordon, playing number one doubles, and junior Reid Merryman, playing number one singles, triumphantly led the Knights through their victorious season. Other varsity contributors included juniors Colin Ethier and Rohit Chaudary and sophomores Kevin Hickey and Joe Strebinger. An especially notable highlight in this incredible season was the advancement of number one doubles team Garrett and Gordon in sectional play. The knights made this a notable season and should be proud of their accomplishments! Way to go Knights!

A League of Their Own

It was a tough season for the Lady Knights. What was thought to be a year to win sectionals turned into a season of rebuilding under the leadership of co-captains, seniors Mary Ann Barrett and Stacey Hayden and junior Michelle Barany. Pitchers Becky Bremer and Leila Charmat were key for the defense. Big wins included Riley, Clay, and Adams. The girls also took first place in the Concordia Invitational for the second time. Coach Grenert earned his 200th career win over New Prairie. Good luck next year, and don't forget, "Semper Fi!"

Catch Me if You Can

A tough rebuilding year for the Marian Boys' Track Team ended with a record of 2 wins, 7 losses, and 1 tie. Each individual gave his utmost in each contest as two outstanding team members earned recognition. Gabe Masterson in pole vault and Jack Martin in 110 meter high hurdles both advanced to the regional competition. Great effort, boys!

Happy Gilmore

The Marian Golf Team had another great season. With only one loss before sectionals, the team looked forward to even more success. The boys won Sectionals and placed second at regionals, allowing them to move on to State. State took place at the Legends Course which became a challenge for the boys. The team ended up getting tenth in the state while senior Cole Isban captured 3rd place individual honors. Good job, guys, and good luck to next year's team!

Tin Cup

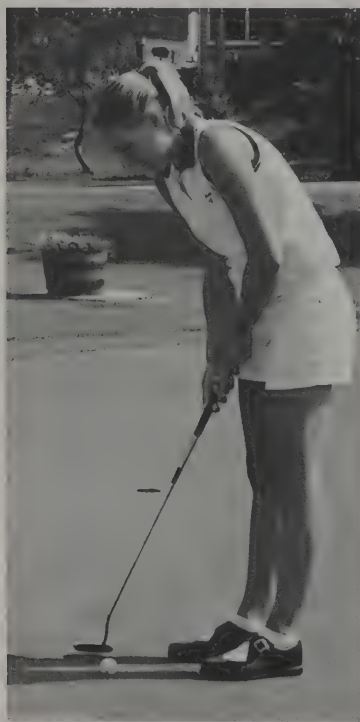

The girls' golf team had a better than great year. They were able to advance to Regionals and then on to state. This was the first time in Marian history that this height has been reached. All of the records were broken including the one for the best record from 15-8 to an outstanding 22-3. The good news is that only two seniors, Katie Jaskowiak and Sarah Mullin, will be leaving the team. The majority of the girls will be back again next year ready to break all of the records once again.

Can't Hardly Wait

Senior Year is finally here! After months of searching for the right college, filling out applications, and making the final decisions that will determine the rest of our lives, we are ready to take the next step. The past four years have been filled with laughter, tears, and memories to last a life time ... plus a little bit of learning. It is said that college is the best four years of your life, so good luck to the class of 2003 in every step of the way.

In the Words of 2003..

"Never be bullied into silence. Never allow yourself to be made a victim. Accept no one's definition of your life; define yourself."

~ Harvey Fierstein

"Your body is not who you are, it is something you have. Your mind is not who you are, it is something you use. Your soul is the essence of who you are."

~ Lydia Shelly

"Have you ever walked into a room and forgot why you entered? - I think that is how dogs live their lives." Sarah Taylor

"Give it your all, never give up on what you want, and go for it with no regrets."

~Meghann Conte

"Live right now. Yeah, just be yourself. It doesn't matter if it's good enough for someone else."

~ Jimmy Eats World
Submitted by Lindsey Vogel.

"The most common resource in the world is unrealized potential."

~Blair Mancini

"Many people will walk in and out of your life, but only true friends will leave footprints in your heart."

~ Ann Verwilt

"To be loved, be lovable!"

~Katie Jaskowiak

"It is only when the sane squirrel fights the crazy squirrel for the giant green acorn that one can truly fight in the Battle of the Bugles and become a sandwich."

~ Tony (Bam Bam) Cunningham

"Everything is ok in the end; if it's not ok, then it's not the end."

~ Brigitte Szocs

"The cruelest lies are often told without a word. The kindest truths often spoke, but never heard."

~Ben Folds Five
Submitted by Lisa Goepfrich

"Oh, I get it, they think they're on horses!"

~Ann Verwilt after watching Monty Python and the Holy Grail
Submitted by Nathaniel Street

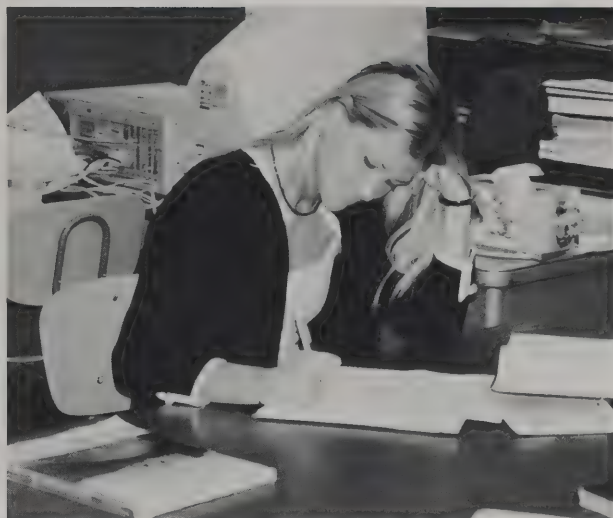

"Singing someone else's song is like keeping your clothes on." ~Eddie Vedder
Submitted by Patrick Gordon

"There are always two paths to take, two choices. One is easy, and its only reward is that it's easy."

~Carly Reust

"Friends are quiet angels who lift us to our feet when our wings have trouble remembering how to fly."

~Brigitte Szocs

"No matter what anyone tells you, you can never have too much sugar." ~Sarah Taylor

"You have to stand up for what you believe in. Sometimes that means standing alone." ~Sean Miller

"Friendship is the hardest thing in the world to explain. It's not something you learn in school. But if you haven't learned the meaning of friendship, you really haven't learned anything." ~ Muhammad Ali

"Nothing is what it seems to be." Submitted by Patrick Gordon

"All I need is food and creative love." ~Rusted Root
Submitted by Malia Probst

"To believe in something and not to live it, is dishonest." ~Gandhi

"If you do one thing in your life, follow your heart" ~anonymous
"Hey Woo!" ~ Nate Hayes

"It takes your enemy and your friend, working together, to hurt you to the heart: the one to slander you and the other to get the news to you." ~ Mark Twain

"Cherish each moment for that moment is your life." ~Sarah Mullin

"The minute you start talking about what you're going to do if you lose, you have lost." ~George Shultz

"Do not dwell in the past, do not dream of the future, concentrate the mind on the present moment." ~Buddha

The Class of 2003!

The Replacements

Junior year is full of changes. Finally being upperclassmen is just one perk. Watching the freshmen move for you is another. However, this year is not all fun and games. College letters begin to arrive, and questions about college and the future seem to come from every direction. Luckily the class of 2004 can handle anything and still find time to enjoy the year.

Staying Alive

The Sophomore Class survived one year, and now they happily move up from being the ones who were pushed and shoved by the seniors. Having learned a few things since coming to Marian, they have found a balance with clubs, sports, activities, and academics. Beginning to plan their futures, they build new friendships and memorable moments that will last a lifetime.

Clueless

Freshman year was a challenge, but the class of 2006 gladly entered the fray. Sticky lockers, hall passes, gym clothes, and projects galore marked their first foray into high school life. By the end of the year, the Freshmen were feeling a lot less "clueless."

Freshman class officers are ready for anything: (L-R) Lauren Quig, Treasurer; Alyssa Bolduan, President; Will Mitchell, Vice-President; Kara Schultheis, Secretary.

Final Words

This year, the Yearbook staff set out to improve what we did last year. Looking through final proofs and seeing all the work done, I think we reached our goal. But, we could not have done it without the unending support from our advisor Ms. Conn; she was always there to offer us an encouraging word when it was needed most. I want to thank Allison Krisch, the co-editor, for all her help and her dedication to this book. Thanks to Candace Doriot, who helped me more than she realizes. I enjoyed having second hour working in the library. Thanks to Mrs. Williams for always lending a hand when we struggled to find pictures. I was able to learn a lot from putting together spreads throughout this book, most importantly, that all the hard work pays off when you see the finished product. I hope you enjoy this yearbook because it was produced to capture the faces of friends and to recall the many memories made while at Marian. Good Luck next year, Allison! Remember don't leave trapped white space. :)

Mary Barrett

I want to start by thanking everyone that donated pictures. Without those, a lot of the pages would be blank. I would also like to thank my friends for answering some weird questions about their various clubs. A special thanks goes to Ms. Conn for all the work that she does in helping put this yearbook together. Last but not least, I need to thank Niner (Mary Ann). I don't know what I'm going to do without you next year. I can't even imagine doing all of this by myself. I'm sure that you will be getting late night e-mails or phone calls from me about a deadline the next day. But I also know that all the help and support that you gave me will help me handle most of the problems that get thrown at me. Thanks for everything. I'm really going to miss you!!!

Looking forward to another great year---

Allison Krisch

(Advisor's note: Mary Ann and Allison created a superb 2003 Madrigal through dint of the untold hours they spent planning, researching, photographing, and formatting the pictures, layouts, and articles. Bravo! Thank you, and God bless you both!

---Ms. Conn)
